ruining white/lighter clothes by putting them in the wash with darks forgetting about/leaving washed laundry in the machine

our worst frustrations in the kitchen

making a mess and not cleaning up finishing a bottle / carton and placing it empty back in the fridge not putting ingredients back in the cupboard

kitchen cleanliness frustrations

leaving dirty dishes in or next to the sink wiping food and crumbs onto the floor leaving teabags in the sink

What item can't we live without?

The fridge came out top at 41% followed by the washing machine 21%, whilst the kettle and oven tied at 16%

One of the biggest frustrations we can have is how to make the perfect cup of tea. But Samsung can reveal the perfect formula

Step one:
89% say to boil the kettle for the full time

Step two:
49% say brew for 3-5 minutes with 46% saying 1-2, with 1% saying over 8 minutes

Step three:
81% say always add milk after the hot water is added

Step four:
41% tea should end up the colour of caramel with only 14% milky
